PROGRAMME CALENDAR
2018-2019

KILA

KILA was set up in 1990 under the Local Self Government Department (LSGD) as an autonomous institution with financial contribution from Local Self Government Institutions of Kerala. Recently, State Institute of Rural Development (SIRD), Kottarakkara, former AHADS – CCPRM, Agali, Palakkad, have been merged with KILA as regional centres. The three Extension Training Centres Situated (ETCS) at Kottarakkara (Kollam District), Mannuthi (Thrissur District) and Thalipparamba (Kannur District) have also been brought under the academic control of KILA.

The purpose of KILA is to strengthen Local governance by building capacities of elected representatives and officials of Local Self Government Institutions (LSGIs) as well as other stake holders viz. gramasabha member, media persons, social activists etc... KILA shoulders responsibility in giving guidance and extending support for framing policies and policy making as part of decentralisation of power, local governance and public administration. KILA also provides an effective helpline service for clearing the doubts in respect of local administration and governance.

KILA has gained importance in conducting training programmes about democratic decentralisation and local planning thereby being one of the prime centres of such kind in India and outside. Time-bound training requirements are met by creating a training environment at various levels.

KILA is also a major training centre for officials as well as non officials on rural development programmes. Training is being provided for subjects such as Decentralisation, Panchayati Raj system, Local Planning, Public Administration, Climate Change, Management Function, Project management, Soft Skills, Poverty Alleviation Projects, National Rural Employment Guarantee Act, Indira Awaaz Yojana, Lab to Lab Initiative, Local Finance Management, Computer Oriented Training, Right to Information 2005, wetland development, Nirmal Bharat Abhiyaan and Rashtriya Grameen Sasaakthikaran Abhiyaan (RGSA). Research and studies on Rural Development, Poverty Alleviation, Local Planning, Gender and Environment are also being undertaken in KILA.

KILA has been instrumental in strengthening decentralisation of power under the guardianship of Local Self Government Institutions with the cooperation of agencies like UNDP, MoRD, international development agency, SDC, UNICEF, UN Habitat, Commonwealth Local Government Forum, World Bank, national agencies like HUDCO, NIUA, and Central Ministry for Panchayati Raj and Central Ministry for Urban Affairs. The KILA has been acknowledged by the Central Ministry for Panchayati Raj as “Centre of Excellence” for Local Planning and Local Administration.

Pre-service/ Condensed/ Refresher/ Orientation Training Courses for extension officers from various sections from the regional centres at Kottarakkara, Mannuthi and Thalipparamba, Orientation courses for Ministerial Staff, orientation training for Panchayath Presidents, Members of Panchayath, Presidents of Mahila Samajam, Women members of Panchayats, convenors of group financial programme, Village Artisan Training, Training about Nutrition for DWCRA workers and Balawady Teachers – all these are being conducted these centres.

KILA is also engaged in supporting Local Self Government Institutions in the areas of Urban Governance, Climate Change, Environment, Biodiversity, Sustainable Development Goals, Child Friendly Local Governance, and Gender Responsive Governance, Issues of the differently abled, elderly and similar thematic areas. One of the key activities at present is to equip Local Self Government Institutions in attaining ISO 9001: 2015 certification through TQM approach.
